Navigate through Uncertainties by Focusing on Business Growth

We applied for space as soon as ITMA 2023 space application opened. ITMA is the “most important marketing platform for us as it is an innovation hub that attracts the world’s leading textile and garment manufacturers, and brands to source, collaborate and share knowledge. It also represents a global stage for us to strengthen our presence in relevant markets and to acquire new ones.”

- Antonio Panozzo, General Director/ Chief Officer of Sintec Textile Srl

With COVID-19 still looming, companies worldwide have to confront the uncertainties caused by the pandemic. As the world adapts to a new normal, companies must reconfigure their businesses to stay in business and thrive. Thus, the imperative for managing this risk is to focus on strategic readiness.

Be ready to unveil your innovation to the global textile community at ITMA 2023, and share how your advanced technology can help shape future demand in an uncertain world.
