

ACIMIT: Giorgio Calulli appointed new MD

A new Managing Director (MD) has been appointed by ACIMIT. Giorgio Calulli has been on staff at ACIMIT since 2006 as head of the Association's training, internal relations and technical department. He takes over as MD of the Association of Italian Textile Machinery Manufacturers (ACIMIT), Milan/Italy, from Federico Pellegata, who after 25 years managing the association has been appointed CEO of ACIMIT Servizi srl, Milan, the company set up by ACIMIT to provide services in support of associated member companies for the promotion of the Italian textile machinery industry in Italy and abroad.

"I will work to further develop the membership base and ensure member companies receive maximum support from the association in their business activities" - Giorgio Calulli, Managing Director, ACIMIT